Senate Republicans Will Return Surplus to Taxpayers

Senate Bill 1 will provide Wisconsin families with rebate checks up to $1,000

Madison- Senate Majority Leader Devin LeMahieu (R-Oostburg) made the following statement regarding the introduction of Senate Bill 1, which will provide married-joint income tax filers with a $1,000 income tax rebate and provide all other filers with a $500 income tax rebate:

"You and your family know how to spend your hard-earned dollars best, not the state government.

"So, whether you need more room in your budget for groceries, or if Governor Evers' 400-year veto sent your property tax bill through the roof, the State Senate intends to vote next week to return the surplus to the people who created it in the first place: you, the taxpayers."

The income tax rebate will be based on income tax bills for tax year 2024.
