Sen. Felzkowski Announces First Round of Spring Listening Sessions in 12th Senate District

Madison, WI – On Thursday, Senator Mary Felzkowski (R-Tomahawk) announced the date, times, and locations for her first round of spring listening sessions with Representative Jeff Mursau (R-Crivitz) and Senator Eric Wimberger (R-Green Bay).

Under the new maps passed by the Legislature and signed into law by the Governor, the 12th Senate District will be changing. One of these changes moves all of Marinette County into the district – including the Cities of Peshtigo and Marinette. Under previous maps, this portion of Marinette County was represented by Senator Wimberger.

Senator Felzkowski made the following statement: “I am looking forward to representing new regions of northern Wisconsin, including Peshtigo and the rest of Marinette County. These listening sessions will serve as a meet and greet to connect with new and old constituents from the eastern side of my district.”

The date, times, and locations of the listening sessions are provided below:

Friday, March 8th
Senator Felzkowski (12th SD) and Representative Mursau (36th AD)
